BCGEU Classification/Reclassification Appeal Form

(Reference Article 20)

The following individual wishes to submit an appeal of the JJEC's decision (must be submitted within 10 working days after receiving the written notification of the decision):

In order for the appeal to move forward, clarification for individual factors must be documented separately and attached to this form, along with any comments or clarification from the Manager. For each factor, the individual(s) submitting the appeal shall only provide clarification of existing information submitted on the new job description in the original request for reclassification. The introduction of new information or changes to original information will not be accepted. Additionally, the education and experience

Please note that during the appeal review the JJEAP will take into consideration all clarification presented and have the authority to
